Gladys Wenzel called for Whitson to apologize for the promised letter not having been sent. Hamilton was out of town, is back and has approved and apparently he will send it. I did not understand this from conversation with Whitson.
I asked if it would be exactly as Whitson and I had agreed and she said yes and that it would include a release. It is to go out today.

HW 11/30/73